

Application for Temporary Hiatus of Accreditation

Temporary Hiatus Guidelines

Accredited Practitioners may apply to FPA Australia for a break from meeting their requirements to maintain accreditation in accordance with the BPAD handbook due to illness, travel or other appropriate personal or professional circumstances.

For a hiatus to be approved, practitioners must:

- Disclose the reasons for requesting the hiatus
- Declare that during the hiatus period, they will not carry out work that is consistent with the activities of a BPAD Practitioner

The hiatus requested must be for a minimum period of 6 months and may not extend beyond 2 years.

During the period of the hiatus the Practitioners accreditation will be temporarily suspended and all entitlements of accreditation detailed in the BPAD Handbook will cease to be available to the Practitioner, including the use of the BPAD logo.

At the conclusion of the hiatus, the Practitioner will be required to pay the applicable annual accreditation fee before having their accreditation reinstated. If the Practitioner does not renew, their accreditation will be cancelled. A new application will need to be lodged if the Practitioner wishes to attain BPAD accreditation in the future.
